By deleting Section 24-9-204 and Section 24-9-205 of the amendatory language of SECTION 1 in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

Section 24-9-204. A subpoena issued by a clerk of court under § 24-9-203, shall be served in compliance with the Tennessee rules of civil procedure relative to service of process.

Section 24-9-205. When a subpoena issued under § 24-9-203, commands a person to attend and give testimony at a deposition, produce designated books, documents, records, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or permit inspection of premises, the time and place and the manner of the taking of the deposition, the production, or the inspection must comply with the Tennessee rules of civil procedure relative to discovery.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting Section 24-9-207 of the amendatory language of SECTION 1 in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

Section 24-9-207. If the court grants a motion to modify or quash a subpoena issued pursuant to this act, the court, in its discretion, may award the party subpoenaed its reasonable attorneys fees and expenses incurred in defending against the subpoena. A final order of the Court awarding attorneys fees and expenses shall have the status of a judgment entitled to full faith and credit under the Constitution of the United States.

AND FURTHER AMEND by adding the following new section immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

SECTION _____. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 24-9-103, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety.
